Sentiment and Grouch.

Upson—There is no sadder moment in a mother's life than that when she is putting a patch on her boy's pants. She needs must think that the day will come when some other woman will be doing the job.

Downs—Yes, and the other woman will also be filled with a sense of grief to think that she can't wear 'em.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Wisdom of Willie.

Mother (angrily)—Why didn't you come when I called you the first time? Willie—Cause I didn't hear you till you called the third time. Mother—Now, how could you know it was the third call unless you heard the other two? Willie—Easy enough, ma. I knew it was the third time 'cause you sounded so mad.—Boston Transcript.

SAVAGE TIRES

You get double safety as well as extra mileage in the Savage Grip Tread—two safety treads in every Savage Grip Tire.

Those deep diagonal depressions form an efficient tread of the vacuum type, while the sturdy diagonal ribs add the 45 degree resistance walls of the ordinary safety tire.

The Savage Grip Tread tire does not wear smooth, but retains its anti-skidding features until worn to the fabric. Our distributor has a complete assortment in stock.

A Minor Detail.

"Why didn't you publish the account of my daughter's wedding?" she asked the society editor.

"It wasn't complete," was the reply.

"Not complete? Didn't I send you the names of the out of town guests, a description of the decorations and the bride's dress?"

"Yes."

"And the name of the minister who performed the ceremony? I took great pains to get the bridesmaid's gowns."

"I know you did. All that was in the article, but you forgot one important thing."

"What did I forget. I'd like to know?"

"You forgot to tell the name of the bridegroom."—Detroit Free Press.

Homely Philosophy.
Don't build your house on the site of Tribulation Town and then growl when the hurricane sweeps it away. The minute we think we're overstocked with wisdom it's high time to ask the good Lord to give us some. When we hang out the trouble sign that's the time all the little troubles locate us and crowd in to give us all that's coming to us.—Atlanta Constitution.

No Oratorio.
A young bookkeeper attended a pupils' recital in greater Boston and was questioned next day by a musician as to the program. "Good music, eh?" "Oh, yes; fine!" "Popular stuff or classical?" "Oh, all classical." "Any oratorio?" "Oh, no; no oratorio, all music."

Discretion.
Though a man has all other perfections and wants discretion, he will be of no great consequence in the world, but if he has this single talent in perfection and but a common share of others he may do what he pleases in his particular station of life.—Addison.

Suitable.
"Can't you give me a position in your bank, Mr. Jiggs?" "I don't know but what you might qualify as teller, Miss Gossip," retorted the brute.—Buffalo Express.

Somber Reflection.
"Bliggins insists on being the life of the party."
"Yes," commented Miss Cayenne. "And life is sometimes such a sad thing."—Washington Star.

Complete.
Knicker—Is the car equipment complete? Bocker—Yes, it even includes letter forms for putting off the grocer and butcher.—Judge.

Apologies only account for what they do not alter.—Disraeli.

Job printing of every description at the Courier office.

Why Fatimas are Sensible

Because—
—most men like their taste best.

—they are always comfortable to your tongue and throat.

—and they always leave you feeling tip-top, even if occasionally you do smoke more than usual.
